

AIA_001
Architectural Ground & Polished Concrete - AIA_002

Course Details:

Provider - DIAMATIC USA

Provider Number - 40107348

Course Credits - 1LU / 1 hour program

Learning Objectives:

The participant will;

- Understand the definition of ground and polished concrete
- Understand the type of equipment required for these projects
- Understand basic diamond tooling
- Understand how to specify ground and polished concrete
- Understand densifying chemicals and stain protection
- Understand coloring systems for ground and polished concrete
- Understand basic mix design requirements for polished concrete
- Understand maintenance for ground and polished concrete
- Understand sustainable contributions for ground and polished concrete

Course Summary:

This course is based on industry standards and relevant information. The presentation offers information not found in typical presentations. The level of educational content in this presentation is of the highest level. Our course developer is a voting member on 2 - ACI committees including one that deals directly with this subject matter. AIA_002 was updated in January 2015 to reflect industry changes and current aspects regarding polished concrete.